Dear Mr. Iler,

My connection with the Ilers (Eylers) is through my great, great grandmother, Harriet Oiler 52379 b. 1828 Carl. According to our family history, Harriet was born after her father (a Mr. Oiler) was killed in a roof accident. Her mother soon afterward married a Mr. Berry. 22092

Roberta Haggeman says : "We have the last will and testament of Andreew Oiler (Eyler ) 21968 leaving money to his Granddaughter Harriet Carl. Book L. Page 451. Cumberland County Pa." Transcribed by Roberta Oyler Hagemann, his gr. gr. Granddaughter. His daughter Susannah , who md. a Mr. Berry is buried in the plot with Andrew and Susannah, her parents.

2 of Andrew's daughters married a Samuel Berry - Susannah 22091 in 26 Oct 1834, and Elizabeth 22120 on 18 Feb 1836. Susannah b. 8 Feb 1806, d. 7 Feb 1835 seems to be the most likely candidate to be Harriet's mother. (Probably an unwed mother.) She would have been 22 when Harriet was born. Elizabeth was born 3 Nov 1817 and died 6 Oct 1855. She was too young to have Harriet.

The only other explanation would be - if there was a son of Andrew's who is not listed who was her father. and died before 1828, or if Susannah had been a daughter in law., which is doubtful. I have never been able to positively link this up.

I enjoy your newsletters. But I am not directly in your line. If you'd like, you can take me off your list. I know you send out a great many of them. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Pat Hill

Interesting note by Gerry Bruner from Mechanicsburg : The Heckmans were among those who settled about 1840 in Henry's Valley,sometimes called "Pandemonium", in Perry County,Pa. Many of these people were employed at the I.J.McFarland steam tannery on the north bank of Laurel Run and East of the old township road which ran from Blain to Newville.(Gerry says she found Laurel Run Creek extending from Colonel Denning State Park. There is no road presently from Blain to Newville.(Info from Perry Historian)

Samuel and Sophia emigrated to America in 1834, according to Biography of Samuel P. Oyler, their son. They lived in Rochester for a time and were in Indiana by the time Samuel became a citizen in 1842,* at the same time as Charles Wright.

In Hattie's diary for 1866 on June 3rd she wrote:
An angel of death called home Mr. Oyler at 4:00. He had reached a good old age, and I hope was prepared to go. And, I sit and think that I too some day will have to go.

June 5: I have today with others followed Mr. Oyler to his Long resting place. But, he has only crossed the rivr we all havae to cross. He was aged and grey and had spent 52 years of married Life and hiw wife survives him. Mr. Case from Dayton preached his sermon.

Sophia Oyler's Obituary

SOURCE 576 ⑦⑥

Lafayette Journal & Courier, Aug. 16, 1881

Death of Mrs. Sophia Oyler

At Clark's Hill, Tippecanoe county, August 12th, 1881, Sophia Oyler, widow of Samuel Oyler, late of Clark's Hill. Funeral services on the 14th inst, at home of Henry Lindsay, son-in-law of the deceased, conducted by Rev. Mary T. Clark of the Universalist Church.

Sophia Rabson 33273, was born in the town of Ticehurst, county of Sussex, England, on the 22d of December, 1792. She was baptized in the Episcopal church. In July, 1814, she married Samuel Oyler and in 1839 they emigrated, bringing with them to America six children, two boys and four girls. Her husband and son passed over to the world of spirit before.

Mrs. Oyler was well respected by all who knew her. She was a gentle, loving, patient woman, a fond, indulgent mother. The testimony of one of her daughters was: "I never heard one impatient word out of my mother's mouth." Her children and many of her grandchildren gathered round at the last. One of her daughters who resides in New York State was unavoidably absent. Her only son, Col. Oyler, had just started on a trip to New York, and could not be recalled in time for the end. Active and energetic during her long life, she held her own to the very last, helping in the family as late as Tuesday, 9 h, only four days before her death. She leaves behind her five children, twenty-five grandchildren and thirty-five great grandchildren.

Emily Iler md. Geo W. Wilson in Ohio Co Ky. They had 2 children James F. Wilson and Sarah Francis Wilson. Geo W. Wilson was killed by lightning striking the barn in which he & a young boy were stripping tobacco. The children James & Sarah were about 3 & 4 years old. A cousin of my father has a charcoal picture of the two children at that age. Emily married ~~about~~ sometime later to John Craig, a widower with several children. James F. Wilson md John Craig's dau. Nancy Craig. They had 16 children! 10 of the children died in infancy. This is a very very interesting family. I will get some that good info to you sometime later this year. Doesn't sound good, but that is the best I can do now— Ali

Mrs. Alpha Lenora Eilar Dies At 90 After Illness

Funeral services were held in the Main and Sons Funeral Home here Tuesday for Mrs. Alpha Lenora Eilar, 90, residing on the Brown Rd., who had a part in rearing 23 children in addition to 7 of their own. Burial was in the Brick Cemetery southwest of Hagerstown.

Mrs. Eilar, a native of Missouri, died Sunday in Henry County Memorial Hospital after an illness of more than 2 years.

Aug. 1969

In 1903, she was married to Samuel Eilar and they built their home at 2630 Spring St., then wide-open country. After that, they planned and built many of the present houses in and near Spring St. Mr. Eilar died Sept. 3, 1937.

Mrs. Eilar was a member of the New Lisbon Christian Church and her husband, the Chicago Corner Church of God. Finding it difficult to attend church so far from home, they organized a church in their home. Later they and the community built the present church building located at Spring St. and Brown Road. A new structure is being built to take the place of the old one.

A lifelong Republican, Mrs. Eilar voted in every election after women were given the franchise. In November, 1968, by that time bedfast, she was driven to the polling place in an ambulance and voted from the cot. Under the circumstances, rules were relaxed. Her balloting was not entirely secret.

Besides their own seven children, the Eilars shared their home with and reared a number of other children. Among them were, in the early years, Mrs. Lula Tower and Mrs. Anna Driver, both of New Castle, and later the children of Mrs. Eilar's sister, Mrs. Geneva Dickerson. Two of them, Otto Dickerson and Mrs. Everett Vanlandingham, still reside in the area. Seventeen other children have shared the Eilar home.

Aug. 1969

Surviving are Mrs. Eilar's seven children, Miss Frances Eilar, teacher of home economics at Chrysler High School; Mrs. Fred (Mabel) Yockey and Mrs. Hugh (Hazel) Morrison, teachers in the Indianapolis public schools; Mrs. Francis (Dorothy) Laurie, R. 4; Norman W. Eilar of New Carlisle, Ohio, a minister in the United Methodist Church; Mrs. W. W. (Pauline) Renke, a teacher in the Muncie public schools; and Mrs. Roy (Mildred) Howard, of Pershing.

Also surviving are 10 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

ROSE CITY RAMBLER

By Charles Garver

Temperamentally and socially we're a sort of loner --have lots of friends, we hope, but no really bosom buddies, so to speak, other than in the immediate family, If that situation was different we would probably have some personal, first-hand anecdotes and stories to relate about Mrs. Alpha Lenora Eilar, who died this week. However, from a visit in Mrs. Eilar's home and a trip out to her neighborhood to take her picture voting from her bed of confinement we very definitely sensed the love and admiration that her friends and neighbors had for her. In our humble estimation one of the basic truths is that raising ONE child to a wholesome, Christian, responsible citizen is quite an achievement and when we observe parents, particularly themothers who are around the children more it seems, diligently and faithfully endeavoring to cope with the problems of half a dozen or more children we often wonder how they manage to come up with such patience, understanding, etc. and also wonder how they avoid blowing their top or suffering complete nervous collapse. Anyone in this category that we're talking about certainly deserves a few stars in their crown and when you consider that Mrs. Eilar's total "family", seven children of their own and 23 others who at one time or another shared the hospitality of the Eilar home, equals 30 different individuals lives whom she had an influence on, you know (1) Mrs. Eilar had a very busy and most rewarding life and (2) God must surely consider her as one of His very, very, very special children.

ROSE CITY RAMBLER

By Charles Garver

Temperamentally and socially we're a sort of loner --have lots of friends, we hope, but no really bosom buddies, so to speak, other than in the immediate family, If that situation was different we would probably have some personal, first-hand anecdotes and stories to relate about Mrs. Alpha Lenora Eilar, who died this week. However, from a visit in Mrs. Eilar's home and a trip out to her neighborhood to take her picture voting from her bed of confinement we very definitely sensed the love and admiration that her friends and neighbors had for her. In our humble estimation one of the basic truths is that raising ONE child to a wholesome, Christian, responsible citizen is quite an achievement and when we observe parents, particularly themothers who are around the children more it seems, diligently and faithfully endeavoring to cope with the problems of half a dozen or more children we often wonder how they manage to come up with such patience, understanding, etc. and also wonder how they avoid blowing their top or suffering complete nervous collapse. Anyone in this category that we're talking about certainly deserves a few stars in their crown and when you consider that Mrs. Eilar's total "family", seven children of their own and 23 others who at one time or another shared the hospitality of the Eilar home, equals 30 different individuals lives whom she had an influence on, you know (1) Mrs. Eilar had a very busy and most rewarding life and (2) God must surely consider her as one of His very, very, very special children.

Dear Cleo:

My name is Rufus C.Wysong. I have for many years researched the Wysong heritage which has proved a most interesting family.

This letter is long and I hope you can bear with me and possibly help me and others.

Ludwig Wysong was born in Germany 1678 in or near Durlock. He migrated first to Alsace Loraine, then to Wales, worked in the mines but was either drafted or enlisted in the Kings service and landed in America 1715. He mustered out or deserted amd settled in York County,Pa.. He married a German girl Mary Hammer, who immigrated with her parents, landing in Philadelphia 1729. She married Ludwig at age of 17 or 18 in 1737 when Ludwig was about 60 and they reared 10 children. Ludwig died 1784 at the age of 106 years old.

35741

Ludwig Wysong is our earliest American ancestor and there are probably more than a thousand descendents of him. Through the research by myself and Dr. Dudley Wysong, McKinney,Texas as well as others, we have restored an old blacksmith and carriage shop in Fincastle, Virginia, also established the Ludwig Wysong Memorial Park, a beautiful site in the heart of the historical town of Fincastle,Virginia.

12054

053 Now I am coming to the Oyler connection, one of Ludwig's sons, Valentine Wysong, born York County Pa. in 1744 died in Winchester, Indiana 1824. He married Elizabeth Albright in York ,Pa. and they had nine children. Valentine migrated first to Shepherdstown,Va. now West Virginia, owned a tavern a few years and then migrated to Fincastle,Va. where a younger brother Feidt Wysong had settled. We believe Valentine and Feidt built the blacksmith shop in 1791. Valentine owned adjoining property but did not stay long. Our records show he moved to Franklin County,Va. about 1793. His three youngest children were born in Franklin County,Va. Henry, John and David. 12054

8642

Valentine Wysong had"itchy feet" , he was well to do considering his time. He owned several hundred acres of land in Franklin, County, Va. on which he operated a grist mill on Indian Run and what is now the Roanoke River.

named for Valentine Oyler, son of John Oyler

One of his sons, Lewis Wysong was my grandfather, he was born in York County,Pa. 1784 and died 1864. He married Eleanor Burke Wright ~~1838~~ 1842, she was twenty-two and Lewis was fifty-eight. They had ten children, my father Rufus C.,Sr. was born 1860. He was the ninth of ten children,when Lewis died 1864 his youngest child was less than two years old.

Our records show that Valentine 8276 and John 8005 Oyler evidently migrated from York County,Pa. with Valentine Wysong or soon after Valentine located in Franklin County,Va.. Theee two men married two of Valentine Wysongs daughters. Valentine Oyler you show on chart as Valentine III married Catherine Wysong in Franklin County,Va. 8641 John, his brother married Elizabeth Wysong not long after. 8006 Then Henry Wysong, son of Valentine married Catherine Oyler, who must 8641 have been a sister of Valentine Oyler III and John Oyler.

About 1817 Valentine Wysong sold his land in Virginia and migrated first to Preble County,Ohio, but remained only a short time. He then went to Randolph County,Indiana with his two youngest sons, John and David. Valentine Oyler III and Catherine went with him or soon after. They remained and died there.

Henry Wysong 8642 and Catherine Oyler 8641 went to Preble County,Ohio remained and died there.

Now - I need your help. Your record shows Valentine Oyler ~~III~~ II married Mary Arndt died in Franklin County,Va.. Do you know anything on Valentine I or Sr. and do you know where the name Valentine came from.

In my research I visited York,Pa. about 1970. My trip was short so did only one day there, could locate no descendents. When searching records I learned there was an early pioneer family of Valentines which may account for this name possibly by enter ~~by~~ marriage. This name is prominent in both the Wysongs and Oyler families.

Do you know any thing on Valentine Oyler I or Sr.. He was much older than the first Valentine Wysong.

Thanking you for hearing my story and aany information you can send me.

Yours truly,
Rufus Wysong

Mrs. Cleo Grigg Johnson Gilchrist

Boise, Idaho 83709

Dear Mrs. Gilchrist:

I was very glad to receive your book with section of the Oyler genealogy , which clears up my search for this information.

Ludwig Wysong born in South Germany 1678 died in York County,Pa. 1784 was our first Wysong ancestor to come to America. He married Mary Hammer, daughter of Heinholz and Susan Hammer, who evidence indicates they were in the group of Dunkards that escaped Germany and likely were friends of your Conrad Oyler. The Hammers landed in Philadelphia in 1729 likely on the same boat with Conrad Oyler.

Mary Hammer was seven or eight when landing in 1729, so was your Valentine Oyler # 1. They probably were playmates or even childhood sweethearts. Later Valentine Oyler # 1 married Appolina and Mary Hammer married Ludwig Wysong, who landed in Philadelphia 1715 and also settled in York County,Pa. Ludwig was sixty and Mary was seventeen or eighteen when they married and they had ten children.

Their first son was named Johan Ludwig but thru out his life was known as Lewis which seems to be the English version of Ludwig. Her second son was named Valentine Wysong, I believe Mary named her second son Valentine after her old play mate and friend Valentine Oyler # 1.

One of Valentine Oylers sons was also named Valentine, he became Valentine Oyler # 2. He and Valentine Wysong # 1 was near the same age, grew up as friends because when Valentine Wysong # 1 finally settled in Franklin County,Virginia Valentine Oyler # 2 also went with him or about the same time Valentine Oyler # 2 remained and died in Franklin County,Va.. He was a prominent farmer and landowner. He named one of his sons, Valentine Oyler # 3 also another son John Oyler.

Valentine Wysong # 1, also a farmer and large land owner remained in Franklin County,Va. from 1793 until 1817 when he sold out and moved to Randolph County, Indiana. Three of his children married Oylers - Catherine Wysong married Valentine Oyler # 3 -
Elizabeth Wysong married John Oyler, brother of Valentine # 3
Henry Wysong married Catherine Oyler , sister of John and Valentine

One of Valentine Wysong # 1 older sons was named Lewis, who was my grandfather. He and your John Oyler formed a partnership on ten acres of land and operated a grist and lumber mill at the Linville Creek and Staunton River " now Roanoke River" . When John Oyler died about 1745 Lewis bought his share of the partnership . I don't think John actually took part in operating the mill because he also had a farm nearby.

One of John Oylers sons was named Valentine Oyler. It was this man who the Oyler Chapel nearby was named for.

Ludwig and Mary Wysong had five sons, all veterans of the American Revolutionary War - one son Joseph was lost in service leaving no descendants

The Valentine Wysong branch is the only one that was close to or married into the Oyler family. I was always curious about the name Valentine, German version "felty" and thought it originated on the Wysong side - I was wrong - it originated on the Oyler side.

All Oylers descending from John Oyler and Valentine Oyler #3 are Wysongs as well as Oylers.

I located you thru the Hannabass family and am putting you on the Wysong mailing list as descendants of Ludwig and Mary Wysong.

At Fincastle, Virginia we located an old abandoned blacksmith shop built about 1791 by Felty Wysong, a son of Ludwig and Mary. This shop is located on Main Street at the corner of U.S. 220 and one block from the Court House.

It is a beautiful historic setting and restored and is now the Ludwig Wysong Memorial Park. It was dedicated October 1978 to his five Revolutionary War sons and descendants. We turned this over to the Fincastle Historical Society for permanent up keep and operate as a Tourist Information Center. But always to be known as the Ludwig Wysong Memorial Park. A suitable meeting place for present and future generations of Wysong descendants.

HERWICK, Ida - Mrs. J.L. Herwick At Rest
On last Saturday morning, March 11, 1919, Mrs. J. L. Herwick, another pioneer of the western slope departed this life at 4:30, after a period of most intense suffering from cancer of the bowels.

Ida Oyler, was born on February 8, 1~~9~~861 at Mason City, Missouri. At the tender age of six months she moved with her parents to Iowa where she spent her early childhood. When still quite young she, with her parents, moved to Takama, Nebraska where she experienced her first real sorrow in the loss of her mother.

On the seventeenth of February, l876 she was married to Josiah Lafayette Herwick. During the year of 1881 she moved with her husband and two oldest children to Colorado and located at Buena Vista where she resided for a short time and then moved to the western slope, locating in Eagle county.
>From that point she with her husband kept coming west and located at Glenwood where she lived for fifteen years, where her husband was engaged in contract work.

Eight years ago she made her final move when she and the family located in the vicinity of Grand Valley, a little later coming into the town where she made her home to the time of her death.

During the past two years she made trips to Pocatello, Idaho, Denver and finally she went to Grand Junction where she consulted some of the best physicians in that city. but it was all to no purpose, for feeling that her case was hopeless, she returned to her home in this city about weeks ago and from that time on she begun quietly but surely sinking till on last Saturday she drifted into that other life, where pain and the sorrows of this world are hushed in the joyful realms of eternal happiness that endure throughout the cycles of the infinite ages.

Mrs. Herwick's sojourn in this community she acquired a large circle of real friends. By sweet gentle manner she endeared herself to all who were fortunate in knowing her. The night was never too dark or stormy but she was ever ready to go and give succor and assistance to a neighbor.

The funeral services were held from the Methodist church in this city of which she was a member, last Monday afternoon. Rev. Mallory conducted the services and his sermon was a splendid tribute to the life of the beloved wife and mother; for knowing the family for nearly a quarter of a century he was able to speak with an inspired force that lifted for the time, the baleful sting of death.

The remains were interred in the Battlement Mesa cemetery across the Grand, where they were conducted by her six grown sons, who acted as pallbearers. A husband Josiah L. Herwick, ten children, Birdella Ashlock and William Herwick of Aspen; Fred Herwick of Pocatello, Idaho; Oren and Albert of Wyoming; Guy, Susan, Joe and Tina and Mary Duplice of Grand Valley together with a large host of friends are left to mourn their great loss.

OYLER came from London, England, to America, in 1837, and the same year entered the land now occupied by the subject of this sketch. Of seven children born to MR. and MRS. SHAFFER, but four are living--CHARLES, HARRY, ADA and GEORGE. CHARLES, who is an inventor and a practical machinist, married NETTIE SLY, and has two children, named HARRY and AMY. He makes his home in Rockford, Illinois. HARRY has been twice married, the maiden name of his first wife being ELVA LUCAS. One child, a girl, ELVA GENEVIEVE, was born to them. ELVA died December 23, 1879, her child surviving her but seven months. He was married a second time to MATTIE THOMPSON, and to this union three children have been born, named--LOTTIE, CHARLES and OLIVER RONALD.
HARRY SHAFFER is the present principal of the Clark's Hill schools. ADA is the wife of BOURBON THOMPSON, of Lauramie Township, and they are the parents of two children, named--BLANCHE and GEORGE. GEORGE SHAFFER, who lives in Lauramie Township, married MINNIE DAUGHERTY, and they have one child named GLENN. In religion the SHAFFER family are Universalists. In politics MR. SHAFFER affiliates with the Republican party. JACOB SHAFFER, the father of our subject, was a doctor by profession, and practiced medicine in Cleveland, Ohio, when that city was a mere hamlet. He was one of the first eclectic physicians in the United States, and was a very skillful practitioner, who during the cholera scourge in 1832, was more successful in that disease than any other physician of his time.

HERWICK, J. L. (Si) - Death Comes Quietly To Si HERWICK--Located in Eagle Valley in 1881 and Was Prominent In County Affairs For Many Years.
One of the very earliest settlers of the Eagle Valley passed away March 28, when J. L. (Si) HERWICK died. His death came peaceably and unexpectedly when starting on a trip from his home in Grand Valley to Glenwood Springs to visit with his daughter. His death is recounted in the Glenwood Post as follows.

"When his son, Orrin, and his daughter, Mrs. Susan JONES, sitting in the front seat of the car, drove toward the filling station to replenish the gas tank, Mr. HERWICK riding in the rear seat, remarked that he was not feeling well. His son suggested that in that event perhaps it would be better to postpone the trip to Glenwood. Mr. HERWICK was not favorable to this suggestion declaring that he would soon be all right.

"When the car was stopped at the gas pump the young folks looked around, and to find their father crumpled down in the seat--dead. Evidently death, which was due to cerebral hemorrhage, had been instantaneous, and painless.

Josiah L. HERWICK was 79 years old last October. More than 50 years ago he came to Colorado and with his bride settled at Buena Vista, coming to Eagle county in 1881, and locating the land near Avon, now known as the NOTTINGHAM ranch. Here their sons Fred, was the first white child born in the Eagle river valley. The family lived at Wolcott later, and then moved to Eagle and for a short while lived in the Burns country. About twenty years ago the deceased moved to Grand Valley, where his wife preceded him in death a few years ago.

Mr. HERWICK is survived by nine children: Mrs. Bendella MEYERS of Kansas City, Mo.; William HERWICK of Los Angeles; Guy HERWICK of Rifle; Orrin HERWICK of Grand Valley; Albert HERWICK of Los Angeles and Mrs. Susan JONES of Grand Valley.

Funeral services were held at the Woodman hall in Grand Valley and were in charge of Rev. Otto B. DUCKWORTH of Rifle, one of Mr. HERWICK'S personal friends. All business houses of the town were closed during the services. All of his children except Mrs. MEYERS were present. His five sons acted as pall bearers, as they had done a few years ago at the death of their mother.[11 April, 1930, Eagle Valley Enterprise, p1

Hello All,

Following is a report of the OYLER family I am researching. The information may not be totally correct. It is possible that Elizabeth was a cousin, not a sibling. I is also possible that Caroline never existed. This is the present status of my research. If you feel you connect to any of these people or have information to share, please contact me.

Death of Mrs. Sophia Oyler

At Clark's Hill, Tippecanoe county, August 12th, 1881, Sophia Oyler, widow of Samuel Oyler, late of Clark's Hill. Funeral services on the 14th inst, at home of Henry Lindsay, son-in-law of the deceased, conducted by Rev. Mary T. Clark of the Universalist Church.

Sophia Rabson, was born in the town of Ticehurst, county of Sussex, England, on the 22d of December, 1792. She was baptized in the Episcopal church. In July, 1814, she married Samuel Oyler and in 1839 they emigrated, bringing with them to America six children, two boys and four girls. Her husband and son passed over to the world of spirit before.

Mrs. Oyler was well respected by all who knew her. She was a gentle, loving, patient woman, a fond, indulgent mother. The testimony of one of her daughters was: "I never heard one impatient word out of my mother's mouth." Her children and many of her grandchildren gathered round at the last. One of her daughters who resides in New York State was unavoidably absent. Her only son, Col. Oyler, had just started on a trip to New York, and could not be recalled in time for the end. Active and energetic during her long life, she held her own to the very last, helping in the family as late as Tuesday, 9 h, only four days before her death. She leaves behind her five children, twenty-five grandchildren and thirty-five great grandchildren.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wright

SAMUEL P. OYLER, was born in Hawkhurst, Eng., August 26, 1819, second son of Samuel and Sophia (Rabson) Oyler. His father was a farmer and a freeholder in England. The early years of Samuel Oyler were spent principally in London, where he attended school for several years. He afterward went to school in Westminster for some time. In 1834 he immigrated to America, settling in Rochester, N. Y., where he continued his studies as best he could. In 1841 he came to Indiana and settled in Tippecanoe County, where he farmed and studied theology until 1843, when he united with the Universalist Church, and preached continuously for eight years in that cause, dividing the time equally between Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Illinois. February 4, 1845, he was married to Julia A. Wooding, of Switzerland County, Ind. She died in November, 1847, and in December, 1849, he was married to Lucy Howe, daughter of Solomon Hicks. This lady is his present wife. In 1850 he removed to Franklin, Johnson Co., Ind., and commenced the study of law with Gilderoy Hicks, then an attorney at Franklin. Finding the law fitted to his abilities, he relinquished the ministry, and was admitted to the Johnson County bar in 1851. He readily passed examination to practice before the supreme court in 1852, and subsequently, upon examination, was also admitted to practice before the supreme court of the United States. He devoted himself assiduously to the practice of law after he was admitted to the bar. In 1852 and 1854, he served as prosecutor for his district, and continued working faithfully and successfully in his chosen profession until 1861, when he left everything and entered the union army. He was one of the first to enter the service, and by his own efforts raised the first company of volunteers in this county, which was the third raised int he state. He was elected captain, and subsequently commissioned as major of the Seventh Indiana Volunteer Infantry. He served during the campaign in West Virginia, returning home in August. He then resumed his law practice, but for a short time only, as in 1862 he organized the second company of the Seventy-ninth Volunteer Infantry; was commissioned lieutenant colonel, and assigned to duty in the Army of the Cumberland. He was first with Buell, and afterward with Rosecrans, taking part in those memorable campaigns that aided so materially in bringing the war to a close. He was in the battles of Chickamauga and Chattanooga, where his regiment suffered severely. He returned to Chattanooga the day after the battle of Chickamauga, with 1,900 men, all that were left of the twenty-first corps, of which he was the ranking officer. He had the honor of leading the charge at Mission Ridge, and his regiment, with the Eighty-sixth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, was the first to scale the ridge, and capture the works of the enemy. During the winter of 1863 and 1864, he was stationed in the valley of the Tennessee and the following summer, was with Sherman in his march upon Atlanta, but in July, was disabled by sickness, and in October, was compelled to resign his commission and return home. Upon his return, he was at once chosen by the republicans to represent his district in the state senate, and he did his duty as well in the halls of legislation, as on the field of battle, serving his country in both positions with honor and distinction. He served two regular, and one extra session in the senate, was made chairman of the committee on organization of courts, and a member of the judiciary committee, and in 1868, he was appointed judge of the sixteenth judicial circuit, serving till 1870, since which time he has been engaged in the practice of his profession in Franklin. In 1866, he was a delegate and member of the platform committee of the soldiers' convention held in Pittsburgh. Col. Oyler has always taken a deep interest in local affairs, is, and has been, earnest in his efforts to advance the cause of education. As an attorney, he ranks among the best in Johnson County, and has acquired handsome competence by his practice of law. He is a worth citizen, and highly esteemed where known.
